

The 2009 Oregon NAME (National Association for Multicultural Education) Conference that was "closed down" on May 1st due to a case of H1N1 "swine" flu at Western Oregon University has been rescheduled at McKay High School, Saturday, May 16, 9:00 - 4:00.

Take advantage of this outstanding professional development opportunity. There will be no additional charge for late registration, but please fill out and fax (503-838-8150) the registration form on the website to be sure the conference organizers have a name tag, packet, lunch and raffle ticket for you. Bring a check or a district PO on Saturday. Certificates of attendance will be available.

The conference features:

- Keynote speech
- Concurrent sessions
- Poster sessions
- Lunch
- Multicultural books on sale
- Multicultural children's literature awards
- Multicultural Monologues general session
- Numerous raffle items

Lies & Truths in our History: Teaching What Happened – And What We Can Do About It Now

Dr. Cornel Pewewardy will keynote the conference. He is an original founder of the National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME), nationally known educator, award-winning Indigenous musician, and Portland State University professor of Native American Studies.
