

The 2010 Oregon Chapter of the National Association for Multicultural Education Conference
Presents keynote speaker ~

Dr. Geneva Gay

Author of Culturally Responsive Teaching: Theory, Research, and Practice

{ Saturday, April 24, 2010 8:00am – 4:00pm }

At Concordia University – Portland, Oregon

Administrators, K-12 Teachers, College Professors, pre-service teachers, and community members are welcome.

Afternoon breakout sessions will focus on:

Culturally responsive teaching practices.

- » Anti-hate curriculum
- » Justice-oriented teaching
- » Bi-cultural/bilingual issues
- » School-wide reform
- » Examining media for bias
- » Fighting institutional racism
- » Racism, poverty, and power
- » Stereotype threat/internalized oppression
- » Creating a culture of caring
- » Advocacy strategies
- » The costs of oppression

» PLEASE REGISTER ONLINE AT: WWW.CU-PORTLAND.EDU/ORNAMEREGISTRATION «

Visit <http://oregonname.org/> for updates and more specific details.

CONCORDIA
UNIVERSITY

For more information, contact Keylah Frazier
by emailing kfrazier@cu-portland.edu